

For Immediate Release

LENATI TEAM JOINS FORCES TO HELP CHILDREN'S HOME SOCIETY

Seattle, WA – December 15, 2008 – Lenati LLC, the Seattle based consulting firm, spearheaded an effort to provide gifts and meal certificates to children of Children's Home Society. The effort was lead by Lenati consultant Julie Lowe who joined the firm in 2008. Ms. Lowe reached out to colleagues at Lenati and former colleagues at T-Mobile to help teenage-aged children during the holidays.

“The greatest need this year was for teenage appropriate gifts as well as gift certificates for Christmas dinner,” said Ms. Lowe. “Thanks to generous donations from Lenati employees and from several colleagues at T-Mobile we were able to provide some wonderful holiday cheer for these families.”

The donations to the Children's Home Society included pre-paid cell phones, DVDs, toys, and QFC gift certificates.

About Children's Home Society

Children's Home Society was founded in 1896 as The Washington Children's Home Society. It is a nationally recognized multi-service agency offering a wide range of prevention-based family support services designed to help families of all kinds build on their strengths. Its mission is to develop healthy children, create strong families, build engaged communities, and speak and advocate for children.

About Lenati

Lenati is a professional services firm offering strategic methods for clients to have meaningful connection with their customers in order to elevate performance, revenue, and market share. Lenati offers a variety of solutions to help companies effectively develop products and experiences that are valuable to their customers. Based in the Pacific Northwest, Lenati is well-known for intellectual rigor, practiced expertise, and an uncanny ability to perceive and meet clients' needs. Lenati was founded as Vitalent Group in 2005 by Jennifer Winter and Kris Klein, former executives at Arthur Andersen Business Consulting and Hitachi Consulting.

Contact:

Courtney Klein
206.669.0877
cklein@lenati.com